

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

CCBC holds their 2015 Annual Soul Food Dinner

Oh the weather outside was frightful, but the Soul Food Dinner was so delightful!" Despite the weather many supporters came and enjoyed a plate of good old soul food! Since re-opening our doors in June 2014, this event is the CCBC's biggest fundraiser to date, garnering a profit of over $1500! The profit from this event will go towards our ongoing efforts to rebuild the organizational and physical infrastructures of the CCBC.

A huge THANK YOU goes out Toni Covington, Soul Food Dinner Chairperson, Brad Wooldridge, Henry Hurt, the Isle of Capri (IOC), KWRT, Boonville Daily News, other local businesses, members, and community supporters for helping to make this event such a big success.

"Without a struggle, there can be no progress".

Frederick Douglass

"I had no idea that history was being made. I was just tired of giving up."

- Rosa Parks

Thank you!

CCBC would like to highlight the following donors and volunteers for their recent support:

- Nordyne, Inc. - In Memory of Roy McFadden - donated a brand new heating unit
- Ned Beach - Organization donation
- Gloria Johnson - donated property of 1108 Rural Street
- Johnson Family - donation of Hart Street property
- Givens Sisters - donation to Soul Food Dinner supplies
- James Pearson - donation to Soul Food Dinner supplies
- River Rats - volunteer servers at the CCBC 2015 Annual Soul Food Dinner
- Mary Barile - Volunteer grant writing services.
- Cody Kennedy, Manager, The Fred Restaurant - CCBC 2015 Annual Soul Food Dinner
- Linda Martin - donated to Soul Food Dinner supplies

CCBC

"OUR PLACE...OUR COMMUNITY...OUR RESPONSIBILITY!"

The Summer School Class of 1955 Challenges you!

TAKE THE PLEDGE

Summer School Alum, James Pearson of Nevada and past teachers challenges you to make a monthly commitment to CCBC. All members and non members are asked to pledge a monthly donation to help support the ongoing expense of revitalizing this organization. Currently, the CCBC relies solely on donations, fundraisers, and volunteer support. Your generosity will help our ongoing efforts to develop and provide community services and events.

For more information please contact ccbcbboonville@gmail.com.

TAKE THE PLEDGE TODAY!

Send payments to:
PO Box 203, Boonville, MO 65233
or
PayPal to ccbcbboonville@gmail.com

Welcome New and Returning CCBC Members!

CCBC welcomes Jennifer Wessellman, Veda Givens, and Pam Dowe as new or returning members to our organization. We are honored to have you as members of the CCBC Family and look forward to moving onward and upward with you, far into the future.

CCBC Collaborates with Pick-Up Boonville!

CCBC is proud to participate in the 5th Annual "Pick-up Boonville", Saturday, March 28, 2015. This event, spearheaded by Joan Read, not only focuses on garbage collection and disposal, but raising awareness of the importance of proper recycling, and overall respect in our treatment of the environment.

For information call Joan Read at 882-8877

or pickup.boonville@gmail.com

Upcoming CCBC General Meetings

CCBC General Meetings for April and May 2015 are scheduled for, Tuesday, April 14th and Tuesday, May 12th, 6:00 pm - 7:30 pm., CCBC Community Building, 1111 Rural Street, Boonville, MO.

Emancipation Proclamation Celebration Weekend 2015!

Boonville's Annual Emancipation Proclamation Celebration Weekend 2015 is scheduled for July 31, 2015 - August 2, 2015. Planning for this yearly monumental event is already underway. For more information, contact CCBC: ccbcbboonville@gmail.com

Continued...

CCBC Collaborates with Cooper County 4H Youth Program

CCBC is excited to be collaborating with the Cooper County 4H Youth Program and will be hosting ongoing workshops on topics such as science, art, photography, robotics, leadership, and team building. The CCBC and the Cooper County 4H "Program will kick off" this collaboration with the first annual "Kids Fest Adventure Day", Saturday, April 11, 2015, 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm. This event invites youth, ages 5-18, to participate in "hands on" learning opportunities to experience a "taste" of what this collaboration will offer.

For more information, contact CCBC:

ccbcbboonville@gmail.com

or

Daneal Gerke, Cooper County 4H Youth Program:
gerked@missouri.edu